

FOR THE FIRST TIME IN SERIE A HISTORY FIVE GOALS WERE SCORED IN THE FIRST HALF BETWEEN INTER MILAN AND JUVENTUS

after a 1-0 win over Lens, courtesy of Ousmane Dembele's fourth-minute goal.

Mason Greenwood scored his seventh goal of the season as Marseille edged Nantes 2-1 to stay in contention for the title.

Monaco sits third in the standings, level on points with Marseille and two points ahead of fourth-placed LOSC Lille.

MLS

After securing the MLS Supporters' Shield, Inter Miami turned its focus to the best-of-three first-round playoff series against Atlanta United. In the first leg, Luis Suarez (below) scored in the second minute, with Atlanta's Saba Lobjanidze equalising before halftime. Lionel Messi then set up Jordi Alba's wonder strike in the second half, sealing a 2-1 win for Miami.

However, a stoppage-time strike from Xande Silva in the second leg helped Atlanta come back from a goal down to win 2-1, forcing a decisive third match.

First-half goals from Romelu Lukaku and Khvicha Kvaratskhelia helped Napoli win against AC Milan, retaining the top spot.

However, it failed to capitalise on the chance to extend its one-point lead after suffering a 3-0 defeat to third-placed Atalanta, with Ademola Lookman netting twice to hand Antonio Conte his second league loss of the season.

Ligue 1

The Le Classique between Paris Saint-Germain (PSG) and Olympique

de Marseille ended in a one-sided victory for the defending champion, who scored three first-half goals.

20-year-old Joao Neves opened the scoring before Marseille's Amine Harit was sent off for a reckless challenge on Marquinhos in the 20th minute. Leonardo Balerdi's own goal and Bradley Barcola's strike secured PSG's sixth consecutive league win over its fierce rival.

The following week, Luis Enrique's side moved six points clear of second-placed Marseille
