

AP

Sri Lanka takes 1-0 lead against New Zealand

1 Prabath Jayasuriya picked up his eighth five-wicket haul (5/68) and ended with match figures of nine for 204, taking home the Player of the Match award.

Sri Lanka beat New Zealand in the opening Test to take a 1-0 lead in the two-match series at home. New Zealand needed 275 runs to win but was bowled out for 211 despite top-scorer Rachin Ravindra's hard-fought 92. The host took the last two wickets within 15 minutes on the last day and won by 63 runs. Prabath

Jayasuriya picked up his eighth five-wicket haul (5/68) and ended with match figures of nine for 204, taking home the Player of the Match award.