

A full-page photograph of Neeraj Chopra, an Indian athlete, wearing a black Under Armour singlet with pink and orange flame-like patterns on the sleeves. He is also wearing a black headband with the Under Armour logo. A race bib is pinned to his chest. The bib has a purple top section with 'Allianz' and its logo, a white middle section with 'CHOPRA' in large black letters, and a blue bottom section with a diamond logo and 'BRUSSELS'. He is also wearing purple compression sleeves on his arms and a blue and white fingerless glove on his left hand. The background is white.

DIAMOND LEAGUE REVIEW

Thorn in the flesh: A day after competing in Brussels, Neeraj Chopra downplayed his own achievement of finishing second in the Diamond League final. Instead, he spoke of the lessons learned throughout the year. He also revealed that he had been competing in Brussels with a fractured hand. GETTY IMAGES

A FLAT END AFTER MUCH PROMISE

From the start of the season until the end of the Olympic qualification period, eight outdoor national records were set. However, Indian athletics couldn't finish the year quite as well as it started.
