SUBDUED STARTS AND SUBLIME FINISHES

The football season has returned after its usual hiatus, and as expected the usual suspects have made merry, barring a few surprises.

While Erling Haaland is back to scoring hat-tricks, Kylian Mbappe (left) awaits his first league goal in the Royal White. Here's what else unfolded in the beautiful game across the globe.

Premier League

Manchester City began its Premier League defence with a confident 2-0 win against Chelsea. However, in its following match against newly-promoted Ipswich Town, Pep Guardiola's men delivered an onslaught, securing a dominant 4-1 victory. Haaland was at his ruthless best, scoring a hat-trick, with captain Kevin de Bruyne also finding the net. If the scoreline wasn't
