

» MCC-MURUGAPPA GOLD CUP REVIEW

Timeless legacy endures despite waning fan support

As the MCC-Murugappa Gold Cup fights for its place in an increasingly packed sports calendar, Indian hockey's key stakeholders reflect on the enduring significance of this historic tournament.

Nihit Sachdeva and Anish Pathiyil nihit.s@thehindu.co.in, anish.p@thehindu.co.in

After a long, protracted summer, intermittent spells of rain signalled the return of domestic hockey to Chennai's Mayor Radhakrishnan Stadium. The storied venue in Egmore hosted the 95th edition of the All India MCC-Murugappa Gold Cup, the oldest hockey tournament in South India, second only to the Beighton Cup held in Kolkata.

After a week of intense action, the Railway Sports