SEASON RECORDS FAIL TO CONVERT TO MEDALS

RITU RAJ KONWAR

Of the 28 Indian track and field athletes who qualified for the Olympics, only one other Indian, apart from Neeraj — Avinash Sable in the men's 3000m steeplechase — managed to reach the final of his event.

It's a testament to the insanely high standards Neeraj Chopra (left) sets for himself that an Olympic silver medal — the best-ever result for India at the 2024 Summer Olympics — was a cause for some disappointment to the man himself. "It would have been nice if the national anthem could have also played," Neeraj said after the medal ceremony of the event, won by Pakistan's Arshad Nadeem.

Neeraj, however, had nothing to be disappointed about. It took an all-time
