NOAH LYLES SPRINTS THE TALK TO 100M GLORY

The marquee event of the Olympic Games came down to the wire, with Noah Lyles edging out Jamaica's Kishane Thompson by just 5/1000 of a second, setting a new personal best and creating history.

In 9.79 seconds, it is all over.

Noah Lyles is the Olympic 100m champion. The marquee event of the Olympic Games couldn't have been any closer. Lyles had to record a new personal best, and even then, it nearly wasn't enough. He got off to a disastrous start — the slowest off the blocks in
