

Eyes on the prize: Suryakumar Yadav's incredible presence of mind led to a catch that might become one of the most iconic in Indian cricket history. In the final over, with South Africa needing 16 runs from 6 balls, Yadav caught David Miller at the boundary, significantly impacting the game's outcome. K. R. DEEPAK

Amazeballs: Jasprit Bumrah angled the ball into the stumps, and Marco Jansen was a fraction too late with his front-foot defence. The stumps were shattered, dealing a significant blow to South Africa's chances. K. R. DEEPAK
