

I WAS HAPPY THAT I COULD MAKE THE NATION PROUD

For about a year and a half, I had remained in the top-3 of the world and was dominant at times. My preparation was great and despite a relatively bad second round, I managed to make the final. Winning the silver medal was a sense of relief.