

NUMERICAL OPERATIONS

- How do you represent basic mathematical operations?
- How does the operation you're using affect the type of your output?
- How do you force Python to use a nonstandard order of operations?