

Resizing the Base Image

We need to resize the base image to cover the entire magenta area and no more. Figure 14-4 shows the complete resized image overlayed transparently on the original base image. This resized image is cropped so that only the parts over magenta pixels are copied over to the final image.