Sky is the limit: Akash Deep cut England's batting in half as he claimed his best figures of six for 99 and finished with a match haul of 10 for 187 — the best for India in men's Test in England. Akash's spell helped India bowl out the host for 271, and level the series 1-1 after two Tests. REUTERS

A win to remember:

Shubman Gill-led India registered its first-ever victory at Edgbaston – it had lost seven of its previous eight games. The 336-run win is also India's biggest ever by runs in an away Test. AFP
