Spell from hell: Jofra Archer ran riot as the speedster picked three wickets — Yashasvi Jaiswal, Rishabh Pant, and Washington Sundar — to put India completely on the backfoot in the 193-run chase. Making his comeback after four years, Archer finished the game with five wickets across innings. GETTY IMAGES

Lone survivor: Ravindra Jadeja was left stranded at one end as India fell 22 runs short of the target. His unbeaten 61, aided by gritty contributions from Jasprit Bumrah and Mohammed Siraj, gave the visitor a genuine shot at an improbable win — only for them to fall agonisingly short of a famous victory.
