

FORGED IN FIRE

Aryan x TMG Gaming won the Battlegrounds Mobile India Pro Series 2025, taking home a ₹1.25 crore prize and the honour of representing India at the Esports World Cup 2025.

Neeladri Bhattacharjee neeladri.b@thehindu.co.in

The Battlegrounds Mobile India Pro Series 2025 (BMPS) erupted in a blaze of adrenaline as 16 of India's fiercest BGMI teams competed in a high-stakes battle for supremacy.

The result: Aryan x TMG Gaming came out on top in an edge-of-the-seat showdown with NONX Esports, taking home a ₹1.25 crore prize and the honour of representing India at the Esports World Cup 2025 (EWC) in Riyadh, Saudi Arabia.

However, the competition wasn't just about teams—it was also about individual heroes forged in fire.

NONXLEVII stood tallest among giants, dominating the competition to claim both the Overall MVP (Most Versatile Player) and Realme MVP of the Tournament titles, earning ₹4 lakh as prize money.

Elsewhere, NINJA BOY seized the KIA Clutch Award (₹50,000) while DRAGON OP was crowned Best IGL (In-Game Leader), securing ₹1.5 lakhs.

As the dust settles, Aryan x TMG Gaming will barely have time to rest, with the Esports World Cup already underway, featuring a massive prize pool of USD 70 million.

S8UL FINISHES 15TH IN APEX LEGENDS AT EWC

S8UL made history by becoming the first Indian esports organisation to field an Apex Legends team in the Esports World Cup.

S8UL's Apex Legends squad, featuring Rick Wirth (Sharky), Benjamin Spaseski (Jesko), and Tom Canty (Legacy), qualified for the EWC 2025 through the Apex Legends Global Series (ALGS) 2025: Split 1 Pro League for APAC South.

Though it progressed through the first round in Riyadh, it lost in the Last Chance Qualifiers, ending the tournament with an impressive 15th-place finish among 40 teams.

Chinese side VKG (VK Gaming) claimed the title with 96 points, nine points clear of ROC Esports and took home the USD 600,000 championship prize. The victory was China's first-ever Apex Legends world title and the first

VALORANT RANKINGS

ABHIRUP
"LIGHTNINGFAST" CHOUDHURY

ZAID
"R1SEN" QURAISHI

SHRAVANA
"TECHNO" SAHOO

AMAN
"HOAX" YADAV

GANESH
"SKROSSI" GANGADHAR