everything was normalised, our club came into existence to address the aspirations of the youth of Diamond Harbour, the constituency which has elected him as the Member of Parliament," says Akash Banerjee, DHFC vice-president and the man responsible for the running of the club.

There might be a political undertone in the club's genesis owing to the involvement of a leading politician from the state, but the team is for everyone irrespective of regional, religious or political affiliations, insists the secretary of the club, Manas Bhattacharya. The former India international and Mohun Bagan midfield icon, Bhattacharya has been drafted in to
