

FOR MORE STORIES

Dickie Bird, one of cricket's most iconic umpires, has died aged 92. Born Harold Dennis Bird, he played 93 First-Class matches for Yorkshire and Leicestershire between 1956 and 1964 before becoming the game's most recognisable umpire. Renowned for his humour, humanity and authority, Bird stood in 66 Tests, 69 ODIs and three World Cup finals before retiring in 1996. His contributions to cricket and charity were recognised with an MBE in 1986 and an OBE in 2012. In 2014, he was appointed President of Yorkshire CCC, cementing his enduring legacy in English cricket.

1

THE HINDU PHOTO LIBRARY

2

AP

Quinton de Kock has reversed his ODI retirement, returning to international cricket after more than a year out. The wicketkeeper-batter, last seen for South Africa in June 2024, has been named for seven white-ball games in Namibia and Pakistan from October 11 to November 8. De Kock retired from Tests in December 2021 and quit ODIs after the 2023 World Cup semifinal against Australia, but made no such announcement following the 2024 T20 World Cup final, his last appearance in the format.

GETTY IMAGES

3

Barbados Royals secured its third consecutive Women's CPL title with a three-wicket win over Guyana Amazon Warriors in Guyana, thanks to late fireworks from Shreyanka Patil and Aaliyah Alleyne. In the men's edition, Trinbago Knight Riders ended a five-year drought by lifting its record fifth CPL crown, also edging the Warriors by three wickets at the same venue, courtesy Akeal Hosein's all-round heroics.

4

R. RAGU

Ravichandran Ashwin has signed up for the Hong Kong Sixes 2025. The six-a-side tournament, scheduled for November 7-9, will likely be Ashwin's first outing since retiring from the IPL. He could also become the first capped Indian male cricketer in the BBL, with interest from at least four franchises. Ashwin retired from international cricket in December last year during the tour of Australia after a decorated career that saw him become India's second-highest wicket-taker (537) in Tests behind Anil Kumble (619).