

13th

Fine wine:

Oman's Aamir Kaleem, 43, became the oldest cricketer to score a T20I half-century against a full-member side, his 46-ball 64 bringing the Associate team to within 21 runs of India's 189. AFP

14th

Stretching every sinew: Bangladesh's Shamim Hossain dived full-length to make his ground against Sri Lanka, later holding his nerve to seal the 169-run chase in the final over. AFP