

final goal of the match, assisted by Rashford, who found him with an excellent cutback. With virtually an empty net ahead of him, Olmo had the simplest of finishes to cap a dominant performance by the defending champion.

Atletico Madrid's woes, however, continued as it managed only a 1-1 draw against Mallorca. Diego Simeone's men went down to 10 after Alexander Sorloth saw red in the 72nd minute. However, it showed determination to push forward and took the lead through Conor Gallagher in the 79th minute. It would have been an impressive win had Atletico held on, but in the 85th minute Vedat Muriqi grabbed the equaliser, which led to the teams sharing the spoils. It was a bad week for the Basque sides. Athletic Club suffered a 0-2 loss to Villarreal, while Real Sociedad went down 1-3 against Real Betis. At the end of Matchday five, Real Madrid stays top with 15 points. Barcelona is second with 13 points, followed by Villarreal and Espanyol, both on 10.

Bundesliga

Bayern Munich underlined its status as an early favourite to reclaim the German league title as it thrashed newly promoted Hamburger SV and TSG Hoffenheim, scoring nine goals across the two games. Harry Kane bagged five of them — a hat-trick against Hamburger and a brace against Hoffenheim — and cemented his spot at the top of the league scoring charts with eight in four matches, five clear of the next best, Eintracht Frankfurt's Can Uzun. While the Bavarians maintained their perfect start to the season (four wins in four), Borussia Dortmund too is unbeaten and sits second in the standings, trailing the leader by two points. First-half goals from Serhou Guirassy and Maximilian Beier helped the Yellow and Black beat FC Heidenheim, while a wonder strike from Karim Adeyemi proved the difference against VfL Wolfsburg. Meanwhile, Erik ten Hag's replacement, Kasper Hjulmand, had a thrilling start to his tenure as Bayer Leverkusen boss as his side beat Frankfurt 3-1, despite being down to nine men. Alex Grimaldo stunned the opposition with two successful free kicks, while Patrik Schick also chipped in for their first win of the campaign. The 2023-24 season champion, however, was held to a 1-1 draw in the following game by Borussia Mönchengladbach, thanks to a stoppage-time strike from Haris Tabakovic.

Serie A

Juventus seems to be on a mission to end its five-year wait to lift the Scudetto as it snatched victory in added time against Italian giant Inter Milan in a seven-goal thriller. Juve led twice, thanks to Kelly and Kenan Yildiz, but veteran Hakan Calhanoglu erased the deficit on both occasions.

Then, in a turn of events, Inter took the lead after Marcus Thuram powered in a header with 15 minutes of regulation time left. But the advantage lasted only six minutes as his brother Khephren responded with a header of his own before Vasilije Adzic (below) netted an added-time stunner from way out to put the Derby d'Italia to bed.

Inter, however, bounced back with a gritty 2-1 win against Sassuolo, while Juventus dropped points for the first time this season after a draw with winless Hellas Verona.

In other results, defending champion Napoli maintained its unbeaten start to the season, with debutant Rasmus Hojlund scoring in the comfortable 3-1 win away to Fiorentina. Meanwhile, 40-year-old Luka Modric planted his flag in Italy and bagged his first goal for AC Milan, scoring the winner in the 1-0 win against Bologna. Milan then continued its winning run against Udinese, with American Christian Pulisic steering the action with two goals and an assist. The results took Milan up to third in the table with nine points from four games, level with Napoli in second (with one game fewer) and one behind table-topper Juventus.

Injuries to regular scorers Desire Doue and Ousmane Dembele set the stage for Frenchman Bradley Barcola to shine, and that's exactly what he did, bagging a brace to guide Paris Saint-Germain to a 2-0 win against RC Lens. The 23-year-old scored on either side of the break in a game that added to the French giant's injury woes, with Khvicha Kvaratskhelia, Lee Kang-in and Lucas Beraldo all limping off.

While Kylian left a lasting legacy in the competition, his brother Ethan Mbappe announced himself by bagging a late winner in LOSC Lille's 2-1 win against Toulouse FC. Lille had been trailing since the 50th minute before Nabil Bentaleb equalised from the spot in the 90th. Eight minutes later, Ethan volleyed the ball into the back of the net from close range to take all three points. Another youngster, Ansu Fati, also made his mark in the competition, scoring a brace in his league debut for AS Monaco as it thrashed FC Metz 5-2.

PSG remains the only side not to drop points in the league so far, with four wins in four, level on 12 points with AS Monaco, Olympique Lyonnais and RC Strasbourg, all of which have played one game more, while Lille is fifth with 10 points.
