

« I have actually told him that one more world record, World Athletics loses its Christmas party, two more world records we lose the summer party. – World Athletics president Sebastian Coe joking about pole vaulter Armand Duplantis »

« I know Rafa is totally open to maybe playing some tennis. It sounds terrible to call it 'seniors tennis,' but maybe we can create a tour, like a Fedal tour or something – Roger Federer saying he's open to the idea of launching a tour alongside Rafael Nadal »

2:02:16

Kenya's Sabastian Sawe won his first Berlin marathon with a Season's Best time of 2:02:16, to make it three wins in three races over the distance, but his world record attempt failed on a humid day. Japan's Akasaki Akira was a surprise second after a powerful second half of the race, finishing almost four minutes behind Sawe. Ethiopia's Chimdessa Debele came in third. It was a much tighter women's race with fellow Kenyan Rosemary Wanjiru completing the double for her country in 2:21:05, three seconds ahead of Ethiopian Dera Dida, whose compatriot Azmera Gebru was third.

2nd

India's men's doubles pair Satwiksairaj Rankireddy and Chirag Shetty finished runners-up at a BWF World Tour event for the second straight week, going down to World No. 1 duo Kim Won-ho and Seo Seung-jae in the China Masters Super 750 final in Shenzhen. The Korean pair, also the reigning world champions, beat the eighth-seeded Indians 21-19, 21-15 in 45 minutes. Satwik and Chirag had also lost in the Hong Kong Open final.

PROUD WINNER

Indian Grandmaster R. Vaishali clinched her second consecutive FIDE Grand Swiss title and made it to the women's Candidates tournament after a hard-fought draw against former world champion Tan Zhongyi of China in the 11th and final round. Vaishali became the third Indian to make the Candidates. Divya Deshmukh and Koneru Humpy have already qualified after finishing first and second, respectively, in the women's World Cup earlier this year. FIDE/MICHAL

WALUSZA