Mandaviya: India must be among the top five sporting nations in the world by 2047

Union Sports Minister Dr. Shri Mansukh Mandaviya inaugurated the PlayCom 2025: Business of Sports Summit at Bharat Mandapam, New Delhi, organised by The Hindu Group's Sportstar in partnership with global consulting firm KPMG India.

On the occasion, the Minister also unveiled the KPMG Sportstar India Business of Sports Report and inaugurated the Sports Tech and Manufacturing Expo, a showcase of innovation and industry collaboration in the sporting ecosystem.

Addressing the gathering in the presence of Indian Olympic Association president P.T. Usha, The Hindu Group Chairman, Dr. Nirmala Lakshman, and Sportstar's Editor Ayon Sengupta, the Minister underlined the need for a holistic and inclusive approach to transform India's sporting landscape.

"I am happy that through Sportstar, important conversations around sport, sports science, and athlete welfare are being brought to the forefront," he said. Referring to P.T. Usha's remarks earlier, he added: "As P.T. Usha ji rightly noted, sports is a way of life".

Highlighting government initiatives, he said, "To help our athletes compete and win on the global stage, the government has launched the Target Olympic Podium Scheme (TOPS), which provides world-class facilities to elite
