South Africa clinches series 2-1 despite big defeat in 3rd ODI

1 South Africa collapsed for 155 in just 24.5 overs, as all-rounder Cooper Connolly tore through the batting with figures of 5 for 22 in the final game.

Australia's top order produced a batting masterclass to hand South Africa its heaviest One-Day International defeat in the third and final match of the series. Travis Head (142), captain Mitchell

Marsh (100) and Cameron Green (118 not out) powered the host to 431 for 2, Australia's second-highest total in ODIs. South Africa collapsed for 155 in just 24.5 overs, as all-rounder

Cooper Connolly tore through the batting with figures of 5 for 22. Despite the 276-run defeat, South Africa won the ODI series 2-1. Australia had earlier clinched the T20I series by the same margin.
