With the summer break over, a brand-new Premier League campaign is back in all its grandeur. Defending champion Liverpool started with a home clash against Bournemouth, where the Reds were made to work hard to grab all three points.

New signing Hugo Ekitike and Cody Gakpo found the net to hand Liverpool a 2-0 advantage, but a second-half brace from Antoine Semenyo saw the Cherries draw level. It wasn't until the 88th minute that Anfield erupted when Federico Chiesa scored, before Mohamed Salah struck late in stoppage time to seal all three points.

Manchester United's clash with Arsenal was the highlight of the opening gameweek. After a dismal 15th-place finish last season, Ruben Amorim has been backed with several new
