

7th

Grit and grace: Just when England thought it had an opening with wickets of Gill and Rahul, Washington Sundar and Ravindra Jadeja put on a 203-run unbeaten stand — third-highest in the fourth innings for India, for any wicket, in an away Test — to frustrate the opposition into a draw. GETTY IMAGES

8th

Declined: With 15 overs more to play, England captain Ben Stokes went to shake hands with Ravindra Jadeja and Washington Sundar only to be asked to play on by the Indians. The match continued as both batters reached their centuries before accepting a draw on their terms.

GETTY IMAGES

