Bangladesh clinches T20I series win against Pakistan

1 Pakistan suffered its first all-out against Bangladesh when it was skittled out for just 110 in the first T20I.

Bangladesh secured its first-ever T20I series win against Pakistan, taking an unassailable 2-0 lead with an eight-run victory in the second game in Dhaka. The result followed a dominant seven-wicket win in the series opener, where Bangladesh's bowlers skittled Pakistan for just 110 — the visitor's first all-out against Bangladesh in T20Is — with Taskin Ahmed and Mustafizur Rahman sharing five wickets. Pakistan bounced back in the final match, posting 178 for 7 — a marked improvement from its earlier batting efforts — before bowling out Bangladesh for 104 to seal a 74-run consolation win.
