

ENGLAND

1

Full time: Alessia Russo 57'
Penalties: Alex Greenwood, Niamh Charles, Chloe Kelly

SPAIN

1

Full time: Mariona Caldentey 25'
Penalties: Patricia Guijarro

Contrasting emotions: Spain's Aitana Bonmati won the Player of the Tournament award. Right: The tournament saw record attendance this edition. AFP & GETTY IMAGES against Norway set a new record for attendance at a Swiss women's national team game.

The tournament also saw considerable traction on digital platforms, with UEFA revealing that the Women's EURO platforms garnered 20.7 million engagements and over half a billion views across all posts — both significantly higher than the previous edition.

"If it wasn't clear before, it is undeniable now — women's football is unstoppable. This is more than just a tournament; it's a movement. The response from across Europe and beyond proves that women's football isn't just here to stay — it is setting the new standard," said Nadine Kessler, UEFA's head of women's football.

