Generational talent:

Yashasvi Jaiswal smashed 101 off 159 balls — his third overseas Test century — after India was asked to bat first. At 23, Jaiswal is the second youngest Indian opener to score a Test hundred in England.

Double delight: India captain and vice captain, Shubman Gill and Rishabh Pant, notched up centuries to help the team score 471 in the first innings. While Gill became the fifth player to score a ton on Test captaincy debut, Pant's seventh century took him past M. S. Dhoni's record of most hundreds by an Indian wicketkeeper in the format.
