

6th

Fire and ice: K. L. Rahul struck a pleasing 137 off 147 balls. Rahul now has the most Test centuries in England by an Indian opener — three. Rishabh Pant continued to take on the English bowling attack and recorded another ton and became the second wicketkeeper to register centuries in both innings of a Test match after Zimbabwe’s Andy Flower. GETTY IMAGES

7th

Dominator: Ben Duckett not only scored 149 — the second-highest by an England opener in the fourth innings — but overpowered the Indian bowlers to help his team chase down the 371-run target by five wickets — the second-highest fourth innings chase for the host.

REUTERS

