

5} The number of players to make a three-figure score on their captaincy debut for India. Gill became the fourth Indian to do it in his very first knock with the bat as a captain; however, he is the first Indian to reach a three-figure score on his very first day as captain.

+ in the third innings of the Test
Gill is the only Indian to reach a three-figure score on the first day as captain.
Kohli made 141 in the second innings in Adelaide

6} The number of sixes hit by Rishabh Pant during his first innings knock of 134 at Leeds. This is now the most in an innings by any visiting batter in the last 145 years of Test cricket in England. Only four other visiting batters (two Aussies, a West Indian and a Kiwi) have hit five sixes in a Test innings in England. However, the record for the most sixes in a Test innings in England is by Ben Stokes, who hit nine sixes during his 155 at Lord's in the Ashes Test in June 2023. Incidentally, Pant's six sixes is the second most hit by an Indian batter in an away Test match. Hardik Pandya's seven sixes during his 108 against Sri Lanka at Pallekele in August 2017 is on top.

Most sixes hit by visiting batters in an innings in England

6s	Batter (Score)	For	Inn	Venue	Date	Result
6	R. Pant (134)	Ind	1 st	Leeds	June 2025	Lost
5	S. Luxton (93)	Aus	2 nd	Leeds	Jul 1948	Won
5	M. Holding (59)	WI	2 nd	Leeds	Jul 1984	Won
5	A. Gilchrist (152)	Aus	2 nd	Birmingham	Jul 2001	Won
5	R. Taylor (154*)	NZ	1 st	Manchester	May 2008	Lost

Most sixes hit by India batters in an innings in away Tests

6s	Batter (Score)	Opp	Inn	Venue	Date	Result
7	H. Pandya (108)	SL	1 st	Pallekele	Aug 2017	Won
6	V. Sehwag (309)	Pak	1 st	Multan	Mar 2004	Won
6	M. S. Dhoni (69)	WI	3 rd	St John's	Jun 2006	Draw
6	R. Pant (134)	Eng	1 st	Leeds	June 2025	Lost

Note: The combined total of nine sixes in both innings by Pant in the Leeds Test match is the joint most hit by a batter in any Test match on England soil, equalling the tally of Andrew Flintoff (at Birmingham in 2005) and Ben Stokes (v Lord's in 2023) — both in the Ashes series.

1} The number of sides to lose a Test match after their batters registered five three-figure scores. In the recent Leeds Test, India achieved this dubious record, which never occurred before in Test cricket history, as shown in the table below. To summarise, sides losing a Test after batters registered three or more centuries have occurred on 13 occasions, with England on four occasions, and Pakistan and now India twice. New Zealand, Zimbabwe, Ireland and Afghanistan are the only sides not on this dubious list. India, meanwhile, at Leeds, became the sixth side in history to register five centuries in a Test match and, as mentioned above, the first side to do this in a lost cause. The tables below have the details.
