

AP

Sri Lanka clinches 1-0 series win against Bangladesh

1 The first Test which ended in a draw, marked the final Test appearance of Sri Lanka veteran Angelo Mathews.

Sri Lanka wrapped up a 1-0 Test series win over Bangladesh with a dominant innings victory in the second match. After Bangladesh posted 247 in the first innings, Sri Lanka replied strongly, thanks to Pathum Nissanka's 158, Dinesh

Chandimal's 93, and Kusal Mendis' 84, taking a 211-run lead. Bangladesh then folded for just 133 in its second innings, with Prabath Jayasuriya taking a five-wicket haul to seal an innings-and-78-run win. The first Test had ended in a draw, despite twin centuries from Bangladesh captain Najmul Hossain Shanto, who stepped down from leadership duties after the series. The opener also marked the final Test appearance of Sri Lanka veteran Angelo Mathews.