

» WORLD VIEW OF THE FORTNIGHT

« Still, even after giving everything to my country, I don't always get the training or coach that I truly need – Olympic medallist boxer Lovlina Borgohain expressing frustration over inadequate training opportunities after crashing out in the first round of the World Boxing Championships »

« It was a moment full of tension and frustration, but that doesn't justify my reaction. I made a mistake and I'm sincerely sorry – Luis Suarez apologising for his controversial spitting incident during Inter Miami's Leagues Cup Final loss to Seattle Sounders »

2:18:22

Olympic champion Sifan Hassan shattered the course record to win a historic Sydney Marathon, while Hailemariam Kiros matched her feat in the men's race. Staged for the first time as part of the elite World Marathon Majors, the event saw Hassan dominate, clocking a blistering 2:18:22 to finish ahead of Kenya's former world record holder Brigid Kosgei (2:18:56). In the men's race, Kiros also set a new course record, completing the route in 2:06:06 — 10 seconds clear of fellow Ethiopian Addisu Gobena, the 20-year-old tipped as a star of the future.

3

Ukrainian Grandmaster Kirill Shevchenko has been handed a three-year ban by FIDE, chess' global governing body, after being found guilty of cheating under Article 11.7(e) of the FIDE Disciplinary Code by the Ethics & Disciplinary Commission. The sanction, effective from October 19, 2024, to October 18, 2027, includes a final year that is suspended. In addition, Shevchenko has been stripped of the Grandmaster title he earned in 2017.

CHAMPION STUFF

Celebration time: World No. 1 Shi Yuqi of China rallied to defeat defending champion Kunlavut Vitidsarn of Thailand 19-21, 21-10, 21-18 in the men's singles final of the Badminton World Championships. In the women's final, Japan's Akane Yamaguchi cruised past China's Chen Yufei 21-9, 21-13. AFP