

2023

Paris, France

3 gold, 4 silver, 3 bronze

With a year left for the Paris Paralympics, the Indian track-and-field athletes laid down a marker by hitting double digits in medals (3G, 4S, 3B) for the first time and ensuring a top-20 finish (19th) in the standings.

Antil not only clinched gold in the men's javelin throw F64 event but also improved on his World Record with a throw of 70.83m. Sachin Sarjerao Khilari then broke the Area Record with a 16.21m throw in men's shot put F46 to win India's second gold medal of the event.

Ajeet also upgraded his bronze in Dubai with a Championship Record-breaking throw of 65.41m in men's javelin throw F46 to win India's third gold medal.

Both Kathuniya (men's discus throw F56) and Nishad (Area Record in men's high jump T47) won silver in their events, with Shailesh Kumar (Equalled Championship Record in men's high jump T63) and Rinku Hooda (men's javelin throw F46) completing the second-placed finishes for India.

The three bronze medals were won by Praveen Kumar (men's high jump T64), Ekta Bhyan (Area Record in women's club throw F51), and Pooja (women's javelin throw F54).

Kobe, Japan

6 gold, 5 silver, 6 bronze

India continued to improve its tally and finished with a record 17 medals (6G, 5S, 6B), securing a sixth-placed finish in the standings. Moreover, this edition also saw a rise in medals from track events.

Antil clinched a second Worlds gold medal in the men's javelin throw F64 event with a 69.50m throw, while Khilari defended his men's shot put F46 title by breaking the Area Record with his 16.30m throw. However, it was Deepthi Jeevanji who began India's golden streak with a World Record-breaking time of 55.07s in the women's 400m T20. Another gold came from the track as Simran Sharma clocked a Personal Best of 24.95s to win the women's 200m T12.

The other two gold medals were won by Mariyappan (Championship Record in men's high jump T63) and Ekta (women's club throw F51).

Javelin throwers Rinku and Ajeet clinched silver and bronze, respectively, in the men's F46 event after winning a protest against Sri Lanka's Dinesh Priyantha Herath, who was later deemed ineligible due to incorrect classification and disqualified. Initially, Rinku and Ajeet had finished third and fourth, respectively, with Herath in second.

Sprinter Preethi Pal became the first-ever Indian to win two medals in the same edition after she took bronze in both the women's 100m T35 and 200m T35.

The other medallists included Kathuniya (silver in men's discus throw F56), Nishad (silver in men's high jump T47), Kashish Lakra (silver in women's club throw F51), Bhagyashri Jadhav (silver in women's shot put F34), Dharambir Nain (Area Record; bronze in men's club throw F51), Navdeep Singh (bronze in men's javelin throw F41), and Sandeep (bronze in men's javelin throw F64).
