

Ligue 1

Paris Saint-Germain looked much more like its old self from last season when it thrashed Toulouse 6-3 to make it three wins in three. Joao Neves produced early contenders for the goal of the season, scoring two overhead kicks and a long-range strike to complete a stunning hat-trick. Meanwhile, Ousmane Dembele and Bradley Barcola also got on the scoresheet, with the former converting twice from the spot.

However, challenging times await the defending champion as it will miss the services of Dembele and Desire Doue for at least a month after both suffered injuries during the international break. To add to the woes, manager Luis Enrique is also sidelined with a collarbone fracture sustained in a cycling accident.

Olympique Lyonnais is the only other team with nine points heading into the international break. Paulo

Masterclass: A stunning hat-trick by Joao Neves (in pic, right) helped PSG overcome Toulouse in a 6-3 thriller. AFP

Fonseca's side overcame Olympique de Marseille 1-0 thanks to a late goal from Pavel Sulc.

Serie A

Reigning champion Napoli was made to work hard to maintain its perfect start to the season by Cagliari, eventually winning thanks to a stoppage-time strike from Frank Anguissa. Playing in front of their home crowd for the first time this season, Antonio Conte's men wasted chance after chance before Anguissa found himself unmarked in the box to coolly slot in a cross from Alessandro Buongiorno.

AC Milan managed to record its first win of the season after former Chelsea players Ruben Loftus-Cheek and Christian Pulisic found the back of the net against Lecce. However, its city rival Inter had contrasting fortunes. After thrashing Torino 5-0 in its opener, Cristian Chivu's side surrendered a one-goal lead to lose against Udinese.

Meanwhile, Dusan Vlahovic made it two goals in two games as he came off the bench to help Juventus edge past Genoa. The Bianconeri joined Napoli, Roma and promoted Cremonese as the only sides yet to drop points so far.

La Liga

In Spain, the two giants had contrasting game weeks. While Real Madrid clinched a narrow 2-1 win against Mallorca, Barcelona dropped points in a 1-1 draw with Rayo Vallecano.

Xabi Alonso defended his decision to bench Vinicius Jr (left) at the beginning of the season, stressing that no player will have an automatic place in the starting line-up. When the Spaniard decided to start the Brazilian against Mallorca, he showed why he deserves it, scoring the winner in the 38th minute, just a minute after Arda Guler had equalised Vedat Muriqi's opener for Mallorca in the 18th.