

3rd

4th

Nightwatchman who? India moved into a commanding position thanks to a century from Yashasvi Jaiswal (118) and a remarkable innings by Akash Deep (66). Coming in as a nightwatchman late on Day 2, Deep batted through to Lunch the next day to register a maiden international half-century. PICS: PTI

5th

Finishing flourishes: Washington Sundar (53) impressed with his defensive skills in the fourth Test, and in the fifth he showcased his attacking range, adding a quickfire 36 for the final wicket to stretch India's lead to an imposing 373. PTI

