New Zealand defeats Zimbabwe 2-0

1 The second match victory — by an innings and 359 runs — is the third-largest in Test history

New Zealand wrapped up a resounding 2-0 Test series win over Zimbabwe by taking the second Test by an innings and 359 runs — the third-largest victory in Test history. The Black Caps' imposing total was underpinned by centuries from Devon Conway (in pic, 153), Henry Nicholls (150 not out), and Rachin Ravindra (165 not out), before debutant Zachary Foulkes returned the best figures by a New Zealand debutant with five wickets for 37 runs to complete the rout.
