The biggest eyeball-grabber for Indian chess fans this year will take place in Toronto in April. In a cricket-loving nation, with the Indian Premier League in full swing, there will be several sports lovers keeping track of the FIDE Candidates 2024.

The eight-player event is designed to find the challenger to the reigning World champion, separately in the Open (men's) and women's sections. This will also be the first time these events will be held under one roof. The winners of the 14-round competitions earn the right to play the next World Championship match.

Since the inception of the Candidates Tournament in 1950, India never had it this good before in this tournament. To date, only
