

Making history: Gukesh became the first Indian in 37 years to figure ahead of Anand in FIDE's published rating list. HARRY GIELEN

D. Gukesh: One of the sensational success stories since March 2021, Gukesh is another teenager to look forward to. The youngest in the fray, the 17-year-old Chennai-mate of Praggnanandhaa is equally capable of enthraling the chess world in Toronto.

Gukesh's consistency, resulting in winning tournaments, is unmatched among the Indians in the past four years. His rise was phenomenal as all the hard work done during the lockdown with coach Grandmaster Vishnu Prasanna bore fruit in the first quarter of 2020. Since then, there has been no looking back for this bundle of talent.

A clutch of titles and a dramatic rise in the rating— from 2563 in March 2021 to 2747 in March 2024 — speaks of Gukesh's commitment to succeed. During this period, he became the talk of the chess world when he won eight straight games on the top board for
