the turn of the year. With the likes of Radha Yadav and even Tanuja Kanwer staking a claim to don the Indian jersey, some fierce competition is in the offing when selectors sit down to decide the squad headed to Bangladesh later this year.

Balancing act

The WPL's inaugural season was held over two venues in the same city: the Brabourne Stadium in Mumbai and the D.Y. Patil Stadium in Navi Mumbai. This year, the league moved out of the Maharashtra capital with two new hosts: the M. Chinnaswamy Stadium in Bengaluru and the Arun Jaitley Stadium in New Delhi. While the short boundaries
