He's still got it: Virat Kohli went on a rampage, sending a packed Bengaluru crowd into delirium with a 49-ball 77 that set up RCB's first win of the season. Dropped on 0 in the first over, Kohli struck his 100th 50-plus score in T20 cricket but fell just short of seeing his team home. K. MURALI KUMAR

Nailed it: Dinesh Karthik made a seamless transition from the commentary box to the pitch with a match-winning 10-ball 28 after RCB almost made a mess of a straightforward run-chase with Virat Kohli and Anuj Rawat falling in quick succession. With 10 runs needed off the last over, Karthik premeditated a scoop shot to perfection for a six and sealed the win with a four down the ground. K. MURALI KUMAR
