

REUTERS

2

Kenyan all-rounder Collins Obuya, who led his country to a historic semifinal spot at the 2003 ODI World Cup, announced his retirement. Obuya notably picked five for 24 against Sri Lanka in Kenya's remarkable 53-run win in that edition of the World Cup. Following his exploits in that tournament, Obuya became the first Kenyan cricketer to play for an English county team when Warwickshire signed him on a one-year contract. In his final international appearance on March 23, Obuya scored a five-ball duck against Uganda at the African Games.

REUTERS

3

Pakistan left-arm pacer Mohammad Amir came out of international retirement and made himself available for the upcoming T20 World Cup in June. Amir, who was banned from 2010 to 2015 following spot-fixing charges, had announced his international retirement in 2021. Spin all-rounder Imad Wasim also announced his availability for national selection after announcing his international retirement four months ago. Both Amir and Wasim were selected by the Pakistan Cricket Board for a two-week fitness training camp with the army to prepare for the T20 World Cup.

GETTY IMAGES

4

Western Australia reasserted its dominance by clinching its third consecutive Sheffield Shield title after trouncing Tasmania by 377 runs in the final of the domestic First-Class cricket competition. The team also became the first in the history of Australian cricket to claim both the First-Class and one-day cricket crowns for three successive seasons. Western Australia rode on skipper Sam Whiteman's 104 in the first innings and pacer Cameron Gannon's eight-wicket haul in the final to seal the historic triumph.

SUSHIL KUMAR VERMA

5

Shaharyar Khan, who served two terms as Pakistan Cricket Board chairman, passed away in Lahore on March 23. He was 89 years old. Considered a great promoter of India-Pakistan cricket relations, Shaharyar represented an era when administrators worked tirelessly to promote the sport. He was born in Bhopal and was former India captain Mansur Ali Khan Pataudi's cousin. He also served as the Pakistan team manager on the 1999 tour to India and the ICC Cricket World Cup 2003 in South Africa.