

» FROM THE WORLD OF FOOTBALL

Barcelona climbs to second spot in La Liga

The Blaugrana cruised to a 3-0 win against Atletico Madrid with goals from Joao Felix, Robert Lewandowski and Fermin Lopez, moving up to second place in the La Liga standings. Barcelona grabbed the lead in the 38th minute and Lewandowski extended the advantage two minutes into the second half. Lopez sealed the rout in the 65th minute with a towering header. Atletico, which was reduced to 10 men in stoppage time, suffered its first home loss of the season.

AFP

1

2

3

4

Fireworks on the cards

The quarterfinal draw of this year's Champions League sets up heavyweights against each other early on. The past two winners and the only two teams to win all six group games, Real Madrid and Manchester City, will meet at Santiago Bernabeu for the first leg on April 10. Kylian Mbappe's path to a first UCL title with Paris Saint-Germain faces the Barcelona challenge while Arsenal will play the first leg at home against Bayern Munich. Lastly, Atletico Madrid is paired against Borussia Dortmund.

Sarri steps down as Lazio manager

Maurizio Sarri resigns as Lazio coach after a disappointing run of games, losing five out of its last six matches. Sarri steered Lazio to second place in the Serie A last year but it found itself ninth on the points table. Lazio has brought in Igor Tudor as manager who last coached Olympique de Marseille, leaving in June last year. He has also managed Serie A teams — Udinese and Verona.

Nottingham Forest in forbidden territory

Nottingham Forest was handed a four-point deduction on Monday for overspending, dropping the team into the Premier League's relegation zone with two months left in the season. The team was found to have breached the league's profitability and sustainability regulations, which typically allow clubs to lose a maximum of 105 million pounds ($133 million) over three years or face sanctions.