

11th

Killer Miller: David Miller rescued South Africa after a top-order collapse saw the team reduced to 12/4. Miller's unbeaten fifty helped South Africa breach Netherlands' 104-run target with seven balls to spare. GETTY IMAGES

12th

Zampastic: England had no answers to Adam Zampa's leg spin as Australia defended its 201/7 comfortably by 36 runs in Bridgetown. AP

13th

Blown away: Akeal Hosein's left-arm spin dismantled Uganda to joint-lowest total in T20 World Cup history — 39 — as West Indies won by 134 runs — the second biggest win by margin of runs. AP