

2014 – BANGLADESH

1st

Shock treatment: Debutant Hong Kong pulled off a major upset by beating Bangladesh with two balls and as many wickets to spare. Defending just 108, Shakib Al Hasan took three wickets to give the Tigers a glimmer of hope, but it wasn't enough as Munir Dar shepherded the chase with a knock of 36. AP

2nd

Start attack: Opener Alex Hales made history by becoming England's first T20 centurion when he scored a whirlwind 116 not out off just 64 balls against Sri Lanka. Chasing a commanding 189, Hales was ably supported by Eoin Morgan, who hit 57 as England won by six wickets. GETTYIMAGES

3rd

Titanic upset: England ran out of answers while chasing the Netherlands' modest total of 133 and succumbed to an embarrassing 45-run defeat. This was the second consecutive time that the Men in Orange defeated England in a World T20 match, the previous one being at Lord's two editions prior. GETTYIMAGES