A win for spin: Ravichandran Ashwin and Amit Mishra bamboozled the Australian batters by picking up four and two wickets, respectively, to bowl them out for just 86 in their final group match. Yuvraj Singh had earlier scored 60 (43) to take India to 159. This win made it a clean sweep for India in the group stage. GETTYIMAGES

Sweet revenge: Sri Lanka exorcised its 2011 World Cup demons by beating India in the final. It was a forgettable performance by the Indians, in which Man of the Tournament Virat Kohli (left) was run out and Yuvraj Singh scored a meagre 11 off 21 balls — a far cry from the man who hit six sixes in an over in the inaugural edition. In the chase, Kumar Sangakkara's half-century was more than enough to give Sri Lanka its first World T20 title. GETTYIMAGES
