

2016 – INDIA

7th

Electric Eden: India's high-profile match against Pakistan at the Eden Gardens began with Bollywood megastar Amitabh Bachchan singing the national anthem before the game. During the game, Indian captain Virat Kohli scored an unbeaten 55 while chasing a modest target of 118, leading the team to victory and sending the crowd into a frenzy at the iconic stadium. K. R. DEEPAK

Battle of the underdogs: Ireland experienced a surprising upset at the hands of Oman, losing by just two runs. Renowned for its ability to defeat higher-ranked teams, Ireland faltered in the crucial final over bowled by Max Sorensen. Conceding 15 runs, Sorensen's lapse allowed Oman to clinch a memorable victory. THE HINDU PHOTO LIBRARY

Runs galore: England recorded the highest chase in World T20 history when it overcame South Africa's mammoth total of 229. After Jason Roy's knock of 43 (16) gave England a blistering start, Joe Root scored a sublime 83 off 44 balls to guide his team home. THE HINDU PHOTO LIBRARY