

promising talents.

The players have reciprocated the association's efforts. Last year, the team participated in the Asia Cup and toured Pakistan and Sri Lanka, in addition to securing a spot in the T20 World Cup and impressing in a bilateral series.

With former captain Paras Khadka assuming the role of secretary, the domestic tournament featuring seven provinces has gained prominence. The focus remains on providing ample international exposure to the players. "Previously, our domestic structure lacked competitiveness, but it has vastly improved," said assistant coach Basant Shahi Thakuri. "Earlier, our bench strength was a concern, but over time, we've developed an A team, and with every opportunity, the players are learning." While acknowledging the need to bolster

Reasons to be cheerful: Nepal participated in the Friendship Cup T20 tournament in Vapi, competing against domestic teams from Baroda and Gujarat, and emerged as champion. The players were cheered on by fans, mostly students from Gujarat's universities. EMMANUAL YOGINI