

INSTAGRAM/CRICKET_INA

2

On debut, 17-year-old Rohmalia Rohmalia from Indonesia took seven wickets without giving a run to record the best bowling figures in T20I history, both men's and women's combined. Against Mongolia in the Bali Bash International women's T20I series, the off-spinner bowled 20 deliveries and removed seven batters for ducks to help her side win by 127 runs. Only the third bowler to take seven wickets in a women's T20I, she surpassed Netherlands' Frederique Overdijk's 7/3 in four overs against France in 2021.

GETTY IMAGES

3

The Women's T20 World Cup 2024 will commence from October 3 with last year's runner-up South Africa facing England in the opening game. The ninth edition will have 23 matches played across 19 days in Dhaka and Sylhet, Bangladesh, with each side playing four group games. Scotland qualified for its maiden T20 World Cup along with Sri Lanka after both teams made it to the final of the World Cup Qualifier.

BANGLADESH CRICKET

4

India clinched the five-match T20I series against Bangladesh with a 4-0 lead after defeating the host by 56 runs in the fourth game. India scored 122 runs for six wickets in a match reduced to 14 overs, thanks to a solid stand between Richa Ghosh and Harmanpreet Kaur. Bangladesh, which had a revised target of 125, as per DLS, could only manage 68 for seven wickets. India will be eying a series sweep when it plays the final game on May 9.

GETTY IMAGES

5

The Pakistan Cricket Board (PCB) announced the appointment of former South Africa batter Gary Kirsten as head coach of its men's T20 and ODI teams. The country's Test side will be under the supervision of former Australia fast bowler Jason Gillespie while both coaches will be assisted by former Pakistan all-rounder Azhar Mahmood. Currently working as mentor of Gujarat Titans in the IPL, Kirssten will join Pakistan ahead of the England tour in May. Gillespie will oversee the two-match Test series against Bangladesh in August as part of the 2023-2025 ICC World Test Championship.

AFP

6

West Indies women won the fifth T20I game against host Pakistan by eight wickets to win the series 4-1. The visiting side won the first three games on the trot to set up a 3-0 lead. However, in the fourth match, Pakistan restricted West Indies to 84 and won by eight wickets. The Windies bounced back in the last game and chased down the 134-run total with 10 balls to spare. Captain Hayley Matthews (78 off 49) put together a 103-run partnership with Shemaine Campbelle to lead her team to victory.