1 Inter Milan wins Scudetto on Derby day

Inter Milan won its 20th Serie A title after a 2-1 win against rival AC Milan at the San Siro stadium. A goal from Francesco Acerbi (18') and Marcus Thuram (49') in each half proved sufficient to secure Inter's victory, with Fikayo Tomori scoring a late goal (80') to reduce the deficit. The match also witnessed three red cards in stoppage time, with Milan being reduced to nine men. Inter completely dominated the league and lost only once this season. It held a 17-point advantage over second-placed Milan with five matches left and hence secured the Scudetto.

2 PSG wins record-extending 12th Ligue 1 title

Paris Saint-Germain won the French league in Kylian Mbappé's last season at the club after second-place Monaco lost 3-2 at Lyon. PSG has an unassailable 12-point lead over second-placed Monaco, which has three games left. The Ligue 1 triumph is PSG's third-in-a-row and a record-extending 12th overall. PSG is on course for a potential historic treble if it beats Borussia Dortmund in the Champions League semifinal.

3 Thiago Silva to leave Chelsea at the end of this season

Brazil defender Thiago Silva will leave Chelsea at the end of the season after four years at the club. The 39-year-old Silva announced he is leaving the door open for a return to Chelsea "in another role." Silva joined Chelsea in 2020 after his contract at PSG expired. He said he only planned to stay at the English club for one season but continued playing for the team after winning the Champions League.
