

the middle overs and at the back end of the innings.

The economy rate of these balls in the PowerPlay stands at 14.04 runs (2023) and 13.14 runs (2024) per over.

The run rate during middle overs across both seasons varies between 10.2 and 10.7.

The third over of the opening match of the tournament was a case in point, when Deepak Chahar's medium-pace short deliveries were easy pickings for a well-set Faf du Plessis, who carted him for four fours, two of which came off the short-pitched stuff.

THE SHORT BALL PLOY PROVES TO BE EFFECTIVE ONLY THROUGH THE MIDDLE OVERS AND AT THE BACK END OF THE INNINGS

But with RCB losing three wickets in quick succession, Chahar sent Cameron Green looking for shelter with two bouncers in the final three balls of the PowerPlay. It was the first

Run Rate

IPL 2023