

A DT has only one rule: no point can lie within a circumcircle of any of its triangles. So we check the circumcircle of every circle in our existing DT, to determine whether point 10 lies within any of them. We find that point 10 lies within the circumcircles of three triangles (Figure 7-12).