

```

        (quitButton.handleEvent(event))):
    pygame.quit()
    sys.exit()

    ❸ if newGameButton.handleEvent(event):
        oGame.reset()
        lowerButton.enable() higherButton.enable()

    if higherButton.handleEvent(event):
        gameOver = oGame.hitHigherOrLower(HIGHER)
        if gameOver:
            higherButton.disable()
            lowerButton.disable()

    if lowerButton.handleEvent(event):
        gameOver = oGame.hitHigherOrLower(LOWER)
        if gameOver:
            higherButton.disable()
            lowerButton.disable()

    # 8 - Do any "per frame" actions

    # 9 - Clear the window before drawing it again
    ❹ background.draw()

    # 10 - Draw the window elements
    # Tell the game to draw itself
    ❺ oGame.draw()
    # Draw remaining user interface components
    newGameButton.draw() higherButton.draw()
    lowerButton.draw()
    quitButton.draw()

    # 11 - Update the window
    pygame.display.update()

    # 12 - Slow things down a bit
    clock.tick(FRAMES_PER_SECOND)

```

Listing 12-3: The main code of the Higher or Lower game